Please read the following and sign the acknowledgment and agreement below:

Vendor has read and agrees to abide by all of the City of Farmington Downtown Farmers' Market policies including rental agreement terms as outlined in the Vendor Policies 2012.

Vendor agrees that the City of Farmington and its Economic Development Authority are not liable for any injury, theft or damage to either buyer or seller, or their property, arising out of or pertaining to preparation or participation in the Downtown Farmington Farmers' Market event whether such injury, theft or damage occurs prior, during or after the market. Vendor, on behalf of itself, its employees, agents or volunteers, further agrees to indemnify and hold harmless the City of Farmington, its Economic Development Authority, their officers, employees and agents, from and against any claims for personal injury, disease or death, injury to or destruction of property, excluding claims caused by the willful commission or omission by the City or the Economic Development Authority.

Vendor understands that it must carry its own liability insurance and must provide proof of such insurance and required riders with vendor's registration materials.

The City of Farmington may take photos of the farmers' market and participants and these photos may be used in City publications and advertisements. Vendor, on behalf of itself, its officers, employees, agents and volunteers, grants permission to use the name, pictures, videos and quotes of the foregoing for the above purposes.

The data supplied on this form will be used to process the vendor's application. Some requested data is private. It is available to the vendor and the City and Economic Development Authority staff who need this information to perform their duties, but is not available to the public. You are not legally required to provide this data, but the City and Economic Development Authority may not be able to review your vendor application without it.
